

The statement at right was distributed to each pastor at the Minnesota South District's Fall Pastors' Conference, October 10, 2011.

University Lutheran Chapel has not threatened to sue the District and is not pursuing a law suit against the District. We have no idea who is threatening to do so. The first we heard of this was when Pastor Kind was given this sheet at the Conference.

Pastor Kind attempted to address this at the conference, but was not recognized at the microphone and not given opportunity to speak.

Unfortunately, the distribution of this flier to the pastors, had the effect of squelching any discussion of the sale of ULC.

President Seitz has confirmed, via email, that this flier has nothing to do with any threat or perceived threat from ULC.

Minnesota South District

"Developing missional leaders in congregations and schools"

The District has received the threat of a lawsuit as a result of our sale of our U of M property located at 1101 University Avenue SE, Minneapolis, MN.

As a result, our District's legal counsel has advised us not to respond to any questions or make any statements regarding this situation.
