

ELECTION/PREDESTINATION
LSF Bible Study, Spring 2004

What is election? (Ephesians 1:3-6)

Upon what basis is our election founded? (II Timothy 1:9)

How does this election occur in time? (II Thessalonians 2:13-14; Romans 8:28-30)

How can one be sure of one's own election? (I Thessalonians 1:4; Romans 8:32-33; Romans 10:11)

Why does God in His Scriptures even bring up the issue of election? What is the purpose?
(John 10:28; Matthew 16:18; II Peter 2:10; Matthew 20:16)

Is it possible for one who has been given the gift of faith to lose it? Or is a person once saved, always saved? (Luke 8:4-15; I Timothy 4:1; II Thessalonians 2:1-4; Matthew 5:13; II John 1:7-9;
I Corinthians 10:12; II Peter 1:10)

Why is it not true that God chooses some to damnation? And what would it say about God if it were true? (John 3:15-18; I Timothy 2:3-4)

What causes those who are not among the elect to be damned? (Acts 13:46-48; Acts 7:51; Romans 9:14-23)

Where, finally, must we leave the issue of election? (Romans 11:33)
