

The Formula of Concord

Article 2: Free Will

Session 10

According to the Formula, how are people converted to faith if not by an act of their own will?

Why is it important to focus so much on the means God uses to do this (Word and Sacrament)?

How can we be sure that the Word will work to accomplish what God wills, namely conversion?

What is meant by meditating on the Word?

A person can do no good in God's sight prior to conversion. How do they accomplish good things after conversion?

Paragraph 69 and following deal with willful sin after Baptism. How is a person reconverted in such a situation?

*Rev. David A. Kind
April 1, 2009*